FRONTIER CAP HISTORY

The coonskin cap became part of the iconic image of the American frontiersman from the 18th and 19th centuries. Famous frontiersmen like Davy Crockett and Daniel Boone for example. Boone, however, never actually wore coonskin caps, He disliked them. He actually wore felt hats. Meriwether Lewis wore a coonskin cap during the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

Available with Imprint

A photograph of a rustic mug made from a hollowed-out log. The mug has a natural wood grain interior and a rough, bark-covered exterior. The words "Hillbilly COFFEE MUG" are painted in a black, hand-drawn font on the side of the mug. A wooden handle is attached to the right side.

A shot glass made from a piece of wood with a hollowed-out center. The words "Hillbilly SHOT GLASS" are written in black marker on the wood.

A photograph of a rustic wooden candle holder. The holder is made of a piece of wood with a rough, bark-like texture on top and a smoother, lighter-colored wood on the bottom. The words "Hillbilly Nite Lite" are hand-painted in black ink on the front of the holder. A single, unlit, off-white candle is placed vertically in a hole on the left side of the holder. The background is a plain, light-colored surface.

Two red cylindrical objects, one labeled "TNT" and the other "Fish Finder", are shown as evidence.

A wooden mallet with a round, light-colored head and a long, dark handle, lying on a white surface. Two small red objects are visible near the head of the mallet.

A vertical wooden paddle with a flat, rectangular head and a long handle. The words "Grandma's Paddle" are engraved in a cursive font on the head. There is a small hole at the top of the handle.

A wooden backscratcher with a handle made of a hollowed-out log and a head made of a woven basket. The text "Hillbilly Backscratcher" is written on the handle.

A wooden toothbrush with a woven head and the text "Halibilly Toothbrush" written on the handle.

Figure 1 shows five pencils arranged vertically, demonstrating different bark treatments. The top two pencils, labeled 65-23 and 65-22, have smooth bark. The third pencil, labeled 65-1010, has a rough bark texture. The bottom pencil, labeled 65-1010-S, also has a rough bark texture but includes the text 'WISCONSIN DELLS' on its side.

CUSTOM CLOTHING WITH OUR STOCK ART

Why Souvenir Clothing Sells

T-shirts, hoodies, sweatshirts, and tank tops are among the most popular souvenirs—because people love bringing home a memory of their trip. A great souvenir t-shirt isn't just clothing; it's a conversation starter. When visitors wear a shirt from your attraction, they're proudly showcasing where they've been, sharing their experiences, and inspiring others to visit. It's like having a walking, talking billboard for your location!

We offer a variety of high-quality apparel, including styles for men, women, and children. Our selection includes everything from simple single-color prints to vibrant full-color designs. Among the many brands available, we love the comfort and durability of Gildan t-shirts, which you'll find throughout our catalog.

Why Your Gift Shop Needs a Clothing Line

Carrying a souvenir clothing line is a smart move for any gift shop—we're confident you'll sell plenty. If committing to a large order of 144 pieces feels like too much, we offer lower quantity options to make stocking up easier. With our well-crafted designs, high-quality shirts, and competitive pricing, your shop will be ready to make the most of the vacation season.

Printing Options for Custom Apparel

We provide multiple printing options to suit your design needs:

- Full-Color Printing: This method prints the design directly onto the fabric, making it a cost-effective solution for detailed, multi-color images. Ideal for t-shirts, sweatshirts, hoodies, and tanks.
- Screen Printing: Best for simple, one- or two-color designs. Keep in mind that each additional color requires a separate screen, which comes with an extra setup charge.

You can choose from our existing stock designs or work with us to create a custom design just for your location.

What Is Name-Dropping?

Name-dropping is an easy way to personalize our stock designs by adding your town, state, attraction, or resort name. It's a great way to make your souvenirs more location-specific and unique to your shop.

For single-color designs, black or white are the most popular options, but you can request another color if preferred. Adding a name to a design is considered a custom screen adjustment, which comes with a small charge—but the art fee is waived since you're using our pre-made designs.

If you need a completely custom design, additional art and screen setup charges may apply. If you provide your own artwork, there will still be a setup fee to create the necessary printing screen.

Name-dropping isn't just for apparel—it can be applied to many of the custom products in our catalog. While most of our non-clothing items allow for one- or two-color imprinting, we also offer select mugs that can feature full-color designs.

Need Something Custom?

If you're looking for a product that's not shown in our online catalog or have any questions about custom apparel and other products, we're happy to help! Call us at 800-325-0889 to discuss your needs.
